

Industry Finance Connect

The evolving role of transactional finance

Headstar is delighted to invite you to the next RSM Industry Finance Connect event in Leeds on Wednesday 9th October.

The middle market have embraced Generative AI and other digital advancements in recent years, meaning the existence of a data strategy has never been more important.

What this seminar will cover

RSM specialists will give an overview of how developing a data strategy can take your finance team to the next level, covering:

- The shift from tactical to strategic finance business partner;
- Exploring opportunities for automation and optimisation;
- Leveraging data to support operational teams;
- Upskilling your finance team to adopt a data driven-mindset;
- Setting the foundations for analytics and AI; and
- Embedding good data practices

Why attend?

Those in finance roles must have an inquisitive attitude to change. Adopting a proactive rather than reactive approach can help you maximise the benefit of efficiencies within a finance team, allowing for greater focus and time investment in value-add areas.

This is an invite-only event, so to secure your free place, please contact Alex Law, Headstar Senior Consultant: alex.law@headstar.co.uk.
